1. The Soviet SAG headquarters in Berlin-Weissensee are reported to be in the market for 325 tons of seamless precision tubes measuring 42" by 5 mm. According to a Soviet official in Weissensee, these tubes are required for television masts. In support of this allegation, the Soviets claim that the Blaupunkt radio firm in Eastern Germany is already producing television sets.

25X1A

- * Comment: Probably millimeters also, although the unit of measurement is not indicated.
